Connect With Campus Resources at the Faculty Resource Fair

University Communications
September 2019

Faculty can learn about research support, wellness and professional development resources at the Faculty Resource Fair, which will be held Thursday.

Other resources that will be showcased includes core facilities, libraries and faculty reporting.

The fair is presented by the Office of Research, Discovery and Innovation, Faculty Affairs, the Office of Instruction and Assessment and Faculty Fellows.

The event will be held in the Student Union Memorial Center Grand Ballroom from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Registration is available at tinyurl.com/FacultyResourceFair[1] and at the door. Attendees are asked to bring their CatCard to check in.
