

2017 Campus Resource EXPO

Date::

October 23, 2017

The Division of Human Resources presents the third annual Campus Resource EXPO from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Friday, Nov. 3, in the Student Union Memorial Center, South Ballroom.

Representatives from more than 40 campus organizations will cover everything from discounts to social and professional groups, to professional development opportunities and faculty interests. There will be giveaways, raffles and more.

Learn more about:

- Special discounts available to you as a member of the UA community
- UA social and professional groups
- How to get the most from your benefits plan
- Professional development opportunities at UA
- How to maintain a work/life balance
- Cultural opportunities
- Information technology support available for your home office
- Support and resources available

Join the Division of Human Resources for the insider exclusive UA resources available to you. If you're a UA staff employee, appointed professional, faculty member or affiliate, don't miss this opportunity to ask questions and get the scoop on all the perks and resources available to you – right here on campus!

---

Source URL: <https://uaatwork.arizona.edu/uannounce/2017-campus-resource-expo>