Accepting Applications: 2016-2017 IT Leadership Academy

Date:
May 18, 2016

Applications are now being accepted for the 2016-2017 cohort of the University's IT Leadership Academy, a program that provides information technology professionals with an opportunity to enhance their leadership skills, build a stronger and more diverse professional network, and learn more about how the University works.

Launched in 2015, the program is offered in partnership with The Office of the CIO [2] and the Division of Human Resources [3]. The goals of the ITLA are for participants to build social capital, forge relationships with IT leaders inside and outside UA, enhance their roles as solution providers, strengthen professional presence, and understand their role in the broader UA mission.

If you currently hold a leadership or supervisory role, or you aspire to, you are encouraged to apply for the ITLA. Download the application at http://cio.arizona.edu/itla/application [4]. The application requires a supervisor's signature and a letter of recommendation. Start your application soon! The application deadline for the 2016-2017 class is June 17.

Those accepted into the program must commit to attending all seven sessions that will occur monthly from September 2016 through March 2017. University, community and corporate presenters will cover topics including improving communication, professional presence, networking, collaboration, workplace culture and a range of topics related to the University's mission.

Twenty-five IT professionals from across campus participated in and graduated from the inaugural 2015-2016 class. Read what members of the inaugural cohort are saying about the program [5].
