

ODCE Webinar

Date::

November 9, 2022

The Online, Distance, and Continuing Education (ODCE) division would like to invite you a webinar to learn more about our unit and how we serve the campus community by broadening access to provide ambitious learners with a prestigious education from Arizona's flagship university.

In this Zoom webinar, we will provide a brief overview of each department of ODCE, the populations that we serve, and how we work with campus partners to ensure that our students are receiving a high-quality education that lives up to the University of Arizona standard. Additionally, we will discuss the processes through which you and your unit can work with us to reach new student populations throughout Arizona and around the country.

Sincerely,
Craig Wilson, J.D., Ph.D.
Vice Provost
