Paid Holiday on June 19 in Observance of Juneteenth

To::
University Employees
Names and titles:
Division of Human Resources

Date::
June 5, 2023

Beginning this year, the University will observe Juneteenth as a paid holiday. This observance is in alignment with the University’s values and in accordance with the federal holiday, on June 19, that commemorates the end of slavery in the United States.

All fully benefits-eligible employees who are regularly scheduled to work 20 hours or more per week in a position that is six months or more in duration are eligible to receive holiday pay.

For more information, including events planned this year,[1] visit the Beyond Juneteenth webpage. For questions about the holiday policies,[2] call HR Solutions at 520-621-3660 or email hrsolutions@arizona.edu[3].
