10 Buildings that Changed America
Premieres Tuesday, May 14th at 8 p.m. on PBS 6

Local architect Bob Vint joins AZ Illustrated Metro, Monday, May 13th at 6:30 p.m. to talk about buildings that changed Tucson

Tucson, Arizona â€? May 7, 2013 â€? 10 Buildings that Changed America, a special about 10 American buildings that changed the way we live, work, and play, premieres Tuesday, May 14th at 8 p.m. on PBS 6. 10 Buildings that Changed America features striking videography, rare archival images, distinctive animation and interviews with some of the nation's most insightful historians and architects (including Frank Gehry and Robert Venturi), tied together with fast-paced editing and contemporary music.

So what about here in Tucson? What buildings changed the city? Bob Vint, architect and adjunct faculty member at the UA School of Architecture shares his perspective on local buildings that changed Tucson on AZ Illustrated Metro, Monday, May 13th at 6:30 p.m. on PBS 6.

10 Buildings that Changed America is a journey that takes viewers inside these groundbreaking works of art and engineering. It is also a journey back in time, to discover the shocking, funny and even sad stories of how these buildings came to be. Ultimately, it is a journey inside the imaginations of 10 daring architects who set out to change the way we live, work, worship, learn, shop and play. The 10 buildings were selected in consultation with a panel of historians and architects from across the country.

Virginia State Capitol, Richmond, VA
Trinity Church, Boston, MA
Wainwright Building, St. Louis, MO
Robie House, Chicago, IL
Highland Park Ford Plant, Highland Park, MI
Southdale Center Mall, Edina, MN
Seagram Building, New York, NY
10 Buildings that Changed America is hosted by Geoffrey Baer, an Emmy Award-winning producer and program host. Best known for his popular feature-length specials about Chicago architecture and history, Baer has also hosted national PBS documentaries profiling the architects Robert A.M. Stern and Michael Graves, as well as Saved from the Wrecking Ball, a half-hour program about the preservation of Mies van der Rohe’s Farnsworth House.
