“We The People”

Migrant Waves in the Making of America

A Virtual Summer Institute for K-12 Educators funded by the National Endowment for the Humanities

Join us virtually
June 21 - July 2, 2021

The institute will explore migration as a constant in U.S. history through a case study of Arizona, immersing ourselves in the stories left out of traditional narratives. Come engage with literature, museums, visiting scholars and digital inquiry to examine the histories that have been erased in Arizona and in your own state.

Co-directors: Dr. Carol Brochin, Dr. Leah Durán, & Dr. Kathy Short

Deadline: March 1, 2021

Participants will receive: $2,200 stipend, 10 books, and curriculum materials
